Other menus are also available for lunch with a choice of "à la carte" tastings, with four or five-course, using a unique terroir. Sometimes sweet, sometimes full-bodied, the meals are nevertheless copious and will delight the taste buds of the guests.

Visitors of Le Château can discover the art of living in Bel Ombre through a typical lunch in the gardens, a gastronomic dinner under the varangue, a wine tasting in the unmissable cellar, a sundowner in front of a spectacular view or even a night in Le Château Suite. One thing is for sure, the colonial residence will not leave you without surprises!

For Jérôme Carlier, Director of Le Château de Bel Ombre, this gastronomic adventure tinged with rustic and chic notes is worth experiencing. "Whether you are passing through the wild south of Mauritius or simply want to try a new experience, Le Château will surprise you... We invite you to come and experience a poetic, tasty and refined interlude by tasting the delights of the Bel Ombre region in an enchanting setting," he adds.

The chef will ensure the perfect marriage between nature, pleasures of the table and products from the region, by proposing heart palm, a rustic version of venison curry or tuna, caught in the Indian Ocean. On the sweet side, grandma's papaya will accompany these dishes and enhance them with its unique flavours, which are sure to amaze gourmets.

At the end of the day, it is difficult not to be tempted by the sunset experience, as the deck of Le Château and its gardens are perfectly suited to it. Sip a cocktail or a drink in front of the breathtaking view of the Indian Ocean and the golf course, a sight worth seeing!

For dinner, Le Château's creative menu, in osmosis with its enchanting setting, will transport its guests into a timeless gastronomic universe. A real poetic, tasty and refined interlude.

Finally, wine lovers will be able to take part in tastings of wines from around the world among the 363 references in Le Château's cellar, accompanied by the sommelier. The domain also regularly welcomes foreign winegrowers, who come to showcase their grape varieties through "food and wine pairing" dinners, which have become unmissable in the region.

Le Château de Bel Ombre thus invites lovers of the outdoors and rural settings to a new culinary journey combining local flavours and sophisticated cuisine.
